Nelsy Salden

WIFS board member
Moderator Dive In

Nelsy advocates change from the inside out. Recently, after 17 years in the banking sector, she made the move to Pensioenfonds Rail&OV to contribute to the pension transition. In the past, Nelsy held various management and change management roles at Fortis/ABN Amro and Triodos.

Translating strategy in operations and goals in behaviour to achieve joint and sustainable results, is how she approaches work. Nelsy does not shy away to shed a light on inconsistencies in a tenacious and connecting way. Only when something can no longer be “spared, it can change. Bringing healthy movement is what she stands for, which is possible when masculine and feminine energy are balanced within the organization and within herself.

Nelsy lives in Zeist with her husband and two teenage daughters.
